

Oklahoma Root 52 Prayer Information and Strategy

Selected Oklahoma History, segments pertinent to Oklahoma Root 52 Week.

The state's name is derived from the Choctaw words okla and humma, meaning "red people." Formed by the combination of Oklahoma Territory and Indian Territory on November 16, 1907, Oklahoma was the 46 state to enter the union. The preamble of the Constitution of Oklahoma "Invoking the guidance of Almighty God, in order to secure and perpetuate the blessing of liberty, to secure just and rightful government, to promote our rightful government, to promote our natural welfare and happiness, we the people of the State of Oklahoma do ordain and establish this Constitution."

Evidence exists in the form of ancient translatable inscriptions and carvings (dating to languages and scripts around 1500 BC) that people from the European, Phoenician, Mediterranean regions were some of the first groups to have traveled through and lived in the area of Oklahoma, long before the Spanish and French explorers. Native American tribes and nations are considered the first peoples of Oklahoma land.

During the 19th century, thousands of Native Americans were expelled from their ancestral homelands from across North America and forced to the area of present day Oklahoma. The "Five Civilized Tribes" in the South were the most prominent nations displaced by American expulsion policy, an event that came to be known as the Trail of Tears during the Cherokee Nation's removals starting in 1831. By 1890 more than 30 Native American nations and tribes had been concentrated on land within Indian Territory or "Indian Country." In the period between 1866 and 1899, cattle ranches in Texas strove to meet the demands for food in eastern cities and railroads in Kansas promised to deliver in a timely manner. Cattle trails and cattle ranches developed as cowboys either drove their product north or settled illegally in Indian Territory. In 1881, four of five major cattle trails on the western frontier traveled through Indian Territory.

In 1866 the federal government acquired from the Indians, a large area of land in Indian Territory and prepared to subdivide it into townships and sections, foreseeing the time when the whites would settle the land. Indian Territory was so remote from established base lines and meridians that the surveyors decided to establish a fictitious base line and a fictitious meridian, the meridian to be known as the Indian Meridian. Today in Oklahoma from that fictitious initial point, by Fort Arbuckle, not an inch of land in the state of Oklahoma, the three Panhandle counties excepted, can be located without reference to that little known point. The reference, direct or indirect, is in every deed or lease ever written to describe Oklahoma real estate. The 100th Meridian, also known as the Cimarron Meridian in Oklahoma, divides the state's panhandle from the rest of the state. It is the dividing line used by the US Government to categorize farming. Everything west of the 100th Meridian is considered irrigation farming, east non-irrigation farming.

Increased presence of white settlers in Indian Territory prompted the US Government to establish the Dawes Act in 1887, which divided the lands of individual tribes into allotments for individual families, encouraging farming and private land ownership among Native Americans but expropriating land to the federal government. In the process, nearly half of Indian held land within the territory was taken for outside settlers and for purchase by railroad companies.

Today the area where the cattle trails crossed Indian Territory and the fictitious dividing line was established is commonly referred to as Tornado Alley.

As the settlers pressed west, conflicts arose between Natives and settlers throughout the west, and Oklahoma was no exception. A tragic result was a massacre of some 200 Cheyenne women and children in western Oklahoma. John Sipes, Southern Cheyenne historian, gives the account of the massacre at Washita:

On November 27, 1868, Custer and the Seventh Cavalry charged into a Cheyenne Village on the Washita River in Indian Territory. The result was a massacre of children, women and elders of the tribe and the total destruction of their camp by burning. The horses owned by the Cheyenne were slaughtered. He surrounded the camp and at dawn...he attacked the sleeping camp. The camp was headed by Chief Black Kettle, had no wolves (scouts) out to guard the sleeping village and the sleeping village was unaware of the attack and slaughter of the people that was about to happen. What followed was a massacre of the people from the pregnant Cheyenne women being cut open at the womb and babies left on the frozen ground dead with their mothers. Women, children and elders alike were shot down as at a turkey shoot. Custer took 52 captives back to Camp Supply... as prisoners of war. Thus this needless massacre just four years almost to the date later from the Sand Creek Massacre and to the very same bands and families nearly wiped out this extended kinships of families that had survived the Sand Creek Massacre in 1864 in southeastern Colorado.

The Indian Territory was opened as free land with major land runs. This flood of people caused great chaos, resulting in land ownership disputes and divisions. However the greatest loss took place against the Native Americans who were cheated out of their land by the breaking of over 372 Covenants/treaties made by the US Government.

Root 52 Strategy:

A group of intercessors, pastors, teachers, prophets and apostles have been working for many years to restore Oklahoma's covenant with God. This group of spiritual leaders has become the Oklahoma Apostolic Prayer Network and the Heartland Apostolic Prayer Network led by Dr. John Benefiel. The byline for OAPN is Restoring Covenant with God the Land and the Peoples. Much has been done to reclaim the land, restore relationships with the many peoples of Oklahoma and advance our covenant with God through repentance, prayer, worship, restoring the Feasts of the Lord and building relationships with Israel. For extensive information on these initiatives go to www.HAPN.US or www.OAPN.US and go to Media or Initiatives.

As in all deliverances and healings whether it is for a person, place or thing, the process always has layers of freedom. We have been systematically removing these layers of defilement and replacing them with the Kingdom of our Lord Jesus Christ. We have Divorced Baal, Remarried God and issued the Writ of Assistance. Our next assignment is to take dominion of our Atmosphere by removing even the memory of all sin, placing a firewall around our borders and declaring a restricted airspace in Oklahoma.

Because we are addressing the atmosphere the Lord has instructed us to do our warfare in the atmosphere from our regions of authority. Every regional and county leader will be agreeing each day with prayer points and suggestions from this guide for their churches, homes, places of work, highways, etc.

An instructional teaching video will be available on the www.OAPN.US website (click on Media). This video is a in depth explanation of the information below, including handouts, diagrams, music play lists, with resources for further research.

Everything has a frequency everything! We know that one of the manifestations of the Glory of God is His presence taking up space in our atmosphere. Our goal is to create an atmosphere over Oklahoma that will invite the Glory of God to inhabit the praises of His people. Just as He presently dwells within each of us individually we seek to have Him dwell corporately in our airspace. The electromagnetic spectrum is our known frequencies from radio waves, infrared light, visible light, x-rays to gamma rays. We know that God's frequency incorporates every frequency, many we have not yet discovered. We seek to combine the frequencies we humanly see and hear with the ones God sees and hears to create a Tabernacle of Worship where the Ark of HIS Covenant can dwell (Amos 9:11). This will be an ongoing assignment; we are addressing the next layer, repairing breaches that Holy Spirit has assigned for this time frame.

Chuck Pierce prophecies;

1. Releasing the Prophetic Destiny of a Nation. Oklahoma known as "The OPEN HEAVEN STATE. "I AM present in this state. I AM redeeming this ground. I AM moving. I Am here. Honor Me because I am in the midst of these people and will change the course (of the) nation. This is your day of your visitation... This is a time of gathering. Because I have marked this land, gather one of every tribe into this place. And as you gather them in, I will restore My mind with My people, and they will go forth from this place and carry MY glory across this land... The River is flowing from the throne room. Many have heard My voice and have come into My presence. Many have heard what I would like to do for them. But on their way back to accomplish My purposes in the earth realm, the enemy has blocked their way. I'm going to remove those rocks out of My river of revelation and what you saw I will accomplish..."

2. Chuck Pierce on Covenant Roots;

"...Then he showed me this glory movement. It looked like a fire that began to move... In most states there were these circles and it looked like they were encased and they were blazing with fire... freedom outposts... Then I would see this glory movement attached to the freedom outposts... When that movement would enter into these freedom outposts it was immediate transformation. People would go into these freedom outposts and they would transform. Their bodies would transform. Their cells would realign... They were so filled with the vibrancy of the power and glory of God that people when they would go in, they would come out and be seven times brighter, as they would come through those freedom outposts..." Chuck Pierce has identified 39 freedom outposts in Oklahoma. We also have 39 federally recognized Indian Nations in Oklahoma.

3. First Fruits Kislev, Positioning and Alignment Conference, Denton, November 5, 2010. Chuck Pierce to Oklahoma, "The land doesn't fully know My sound of Heaven and the land will reflect the sound and I will see a nation redeemed from that place." Chuck to all - "Look up in the night, things are breaking, lights are coming in the next 30 days. Sky will light as day, a sign - a people who broke through the night that was capturing your sight." Same meeting, Paul Wilber (who lives in Jacksonville Florida), "I commission you says the Lord, to capture the atmosphere, to saturate the atmosphere, to call a new kingdom, a new situation a climate that invites a culture! How do I capture the atmosphere? In your tongue, in your mouth, a weapon of warfare, lift up your voice and it will be established. Take control of the atmosphere. Power of Praise, control of the atmosphere, it is creating a new climate, it creates a culture of the Kingdom. We are going to lift up a sound that is changing the molecular cell structure moving - shifting. Open wide the gates of the nations... as we plant and take captive the atmosphere. You are commissioned to change the atmosphere agree by covenant of blood so shall it be established in this season of authority, new oneness of Jew and Gentile, ...return the hearts to the FATHER, take authority!" Chuck Pierce same meeting, "Watch as nations change! Watch as my decree comes in. Take captive the atmosphere where you are, invite the culture of the Kingdom. The destiny of the nations is in your mouth! Give a wave offering, feel the Wind, The Wind of His Spirit... A light out of an unknown confused path has blocked your way back, pressing you forward you go I will come behind blowing you with Wind of My Spirit. You will create highways, where highways have not been, pave paths, open ways, a troop to change the land ... commission and call of Heaven has now come, new standards to be established, a way not open has been opened." Same meeting Chuck Pierce to Oklahoma, "Oklahoma a way is OPEN!"

Holy Spirit had already spoken through the Apostolic Intercessors that our week with the Root 52 was to be about worship, atmosphere, wind, weather, restoring the things that had controlled and divided the atmosphere over Oklahoma. These prophecies were confirmation, God had commissioned us to Change the Atmosphere over Oklahoma.

The steps are simple, our directions clear. Each day we will;

- Ask God to shine HIS light on us to get clear revelation and wisdom for that day.
- Ask and offer forgiveness to all peoples, places and things within the mountain of culture for that day.
- Ask for our daily bread = protection, provision and power to carry out our assignment.

We are warring through Worship; praying and singing in the spirit, making faith declarations each day for the culture and the atmosphere. Each day we will be interceding for the leaders in the cultural mountains. There is a correlation between the colors of the rainbow, musical keys and healing for the human body/Body of Christ. By singing in the day's musical designated key and focusing our banners, flags, attire on the color for the day, we come into agreement for the cleansing and healing of the Body of Christ and the Oklahoma atmosphere where we live.
